Annie will also sign copies of her recently released Hamptons Entertaining, a compilation of beautifully described seasonal festivities in estates around the region. Victoria, a blogger and creator of her VA gourmet condiment collection, is among the eighteen hostesses featured in the book. Lucky attendees will have the chance to learn how she pulled off the perfect autumn evening soiree in her Southampton home.

Victoria will also offer tastings of her condiments while you enjoy the raffles, goodie bag, summer cocktails and more that is in store.
